Tobacco Valley Teachers Federal Credit Union CEO to Retire

Enfield, CT – January 3, 2017 - The Tobacco Valley Teachers Federal Credit Union's (TVTFCU) Manager and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) Myrijam Meserve has announced her retirement which will be effective in April of 2017.

Myrijam began her career with TVTFCU in 1989 as the Assistant Manager when the credit union was located on Hazard Avenue in Enfield. In 2004 she was promoted to the position of Manager and CEO at the current location on South Road. During that time period she oversaw the incremental move from Hazard Avenue that took place in 1996. "Myrijam is a valuable asset to our credit union. She has been a professional and loyal manager and has upheld the credit union's philosophy, aims, and goals." said Jack Kertenis, President of the Board of Directors. "She is a leader that has carried us through a very tough economy and has improved our asset value in these trying economic times. Myrijam has earned the respect of her employees and board members by her leadership and her genuine concern and caring for them. I am confident that the TVTFCU will continue to move forward because of her leadership and the training she has given to her staff."

"It has been an honor and a privilege to have worked with Myrijam over the years. She is an admirable credit union leader who always exemplifies what dedication, commitment, passion and teamwork are all about. As a result, the credit union has grown significantly and numerous new products and services have been implemented under her prosperous leadership.” said Lori.
