Enfield, CT – November 30, 2017 - The Tobacco Valley Teachers Federal Credit Union (TVTFCU) in Enfield is pleased to announce the recipients of their 2017 Teacher Grant Award. The credit union began this program in an effort to assist their members who are educators in funding equipment, supplies or training.

The recipients are:

Melissa Lopes, Media Specialist at Windsor Locks High School in Windsor, CT. Ms. Lopes is using the grant funds to fund a Reality Check financial game for students that will teach them about personal finance including how to look for a job, paying bills, budgeting, investments, retirement and more.

Carmen S. Nuccio, Jr., Science Teacher at John F. Kennedy Middle School in Enfield, CT. Mr. Nuccio is using the grant funds to purchase Wind Turbines and an experiment kit. Students will use these items and apply their math and science skills to calculate the use of wind as an alternative to fossil fuels.

“With increasing restraints on budgets and funding for educators, we wanted to offer some assistance. Our program is open to our members who are educators at schools within our field of membership. Two grants are awarded annually. It is our hope that this funding will add to the level of education that is offered to our area students.” said Lori Triba, Manager/CEO for the Tobacco Valley Teachers Federal Credit Union.
