Tobacco Valley Teachers Federal Credit Union Announces Teacher Grant Recipients

Enfield, CT – November 5, 2018

The Tobacco Valley Teachers Federal Credit Union (TVTFCU) in Enfield is pleased to announce the recipients of their 2018 Teacher Grant Award. The credit union began this program in an effort to assist their members who are educators in funding equipment, supplies or training.

The recipients are:

Alexa Kulinski and Angela Earley-Alves, Visual Art Teachers at Enfield High School in Enfield, CT.

Ms. Kulinski and Ms. Earley-Alves are using the grant funds to fund a program that will allow students to design and print books that highlight our youth's individual experiences, aesthetic opinions, environment and community.

"With increasing restraints on budgets and funding for educators, we wanted to offer some assistance. Our program is open to our members who are educators at schools within our field of membership. Two grants are available annually. It is our hope that this funding will add to the level of education that is offered to our area students." said Lori Triba, Manager/CEO for the Tobacco Valley Teachers Federal Credit Union.
